STEP 1

Eligibility

In this section, there are 20-30 questions.

In this section, we will be asking you basic questions to help determine how you are eligible to become a U.S. citizen. We will ask you the questions that pertain to your path as soon as possible to more quickly determine your eligibility. This will also determine the order of the rest of the form.

Here are the categories we may ask you about in step 1:

- Your name
We don't want to start a form or a conversation without asking who you are.
- About your parents
Just checking if you are filling out the right form (if one or more of your parents is a U.S. citizen you may already be a citizen).
- When and where you were born
We are checking on your age because you must be 18 at the time of filing this form (unless you are a member of the U.S. Armed Forces). We can also check if you are qualified as a U.S. national.
- Permanent residency
Depending on the number of years you have been a permanent resident, we will bring you other questions faster to help determine your eligibility path.
- Residence
You must demonstrate continuous residence in the United States for a specific period of time.
- Travel outside of the United States
You must demonstrate a physical presence in the United States for a specific period of time.
- Marital status
Depending on how long you've been a permanent resident, we may be able to determine your eligibility through your spouse.
- Military service
If you are or have been a member of the U.S. Armed Forces, you may be eligible for citizenship.
